I. Financial Aid

WASHINGTON & JEFFERSON COLLEGE (PA) ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR FIRST YEAR WITH MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS

Washington & Jefferson College is still accepting applications for first year and transfer admission with a merit scholarship. Merit scholarships are not full scholarships, but range from $8,000 to $18,000 and are guaranteed each year if the minimum GPA requirement is met. To apply, visit our web site. You will automatically be considered for a merit scholarship when you apply - no additional application is needed for consideration for a scholarship. The submission of standardized testing (SATs and ACTs is option). However students whose primary language is not English must submit the TOEFL or IELTS.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY'S (IL) SCHOOL OF COMMUNICATION NEW MASTERS IN LEADERSHIP FOR CREATIVE ENTERPRISES

Northwestern University's School of Communication is excited to announce a new Master of Science degree in Leadership for Creative Enterprises. The goal of this program is to help students develop the management skills and the professional networks necessary to become future leaders in the visual, performing, and interactive arts.

This one-year M.S. program is not a generic management degree. Every course is designed to help students to build the skills necessary to manage creative people, projects, and large and small organizations. Academic coursework is paired with unique professional development opportunities -- personalized mentoring from industry leaders, networking treks to meet leaders of organizations, and focused internships.

PITTSBURG STATE UNIVERSITY'S COLLEGE OF BUSINESS (KS)
INTERNATIONAL MINI-MBA CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Pittsburg State
University

Pittsburg State University's College of Business is excited to host the International Mini-MBA Certificate Program which is a great introduction to Master of Business Administration. The Mini-MBA Program will be held this summer on July 9-25, 2014. The program is uniquely designed to accommodate the international learner and to introduce the U.S. business environment presented by the faculty of PSU's AACSB accredited and award-winning business school.

This non-degree, non-credit bearing program is open to all students, both undergraduate and graduate, as well as professionals in the workforce. Students do not need to have a business degree to apply. The cost for the program is $2500 (US) which includes classes, field trips, housing, health insurance, access to campus facilities, and airport pick-up.

CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY (CA) SCHOOL OF PHARMACY MASTERS OF SCIENCE IN THE PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES

CHAPMAN
UNIVERSITY

Beginning Fall 2014, Chapman University School of Pharmacy (CUSP) will offer a 2-year, year-round thesis and non-thesis Master of Science in the Pharmaceutical Sciences (MSPS) for students interested in a broad range of scientific disciplines critical to the discovery and development of new drugs and therapies.

Graduates of the program can pursue a variety of career opportunities in pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies. A number of pharmaceutical, biomedical, and medical device companies are located both in and around the Irvine Rinker Health Science Campus where CUSP is located in Orange County, California. Chapman created this program because company leaders indicate their personnel needs project significant employment opportunities for MSPS graduates. Also, graduates are positioned to work as researchers at universities, for agencies like the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), which also has a large office in Orange County, U.S. Pharmacopeia (USP), and at national laboratories such as the National Institutes of Health (NIH).
