

For information

The emerging growth of problems unresolved by the world community gradually brings the world out of balance and creates the ground for future conflicts. Under these circumstances, every state should consider its relations with the rest of the world. This trend underscores the relevance of the Conference topic: namely “Passing along the red line: cooperation or confrontation”.

Five-day debate session agenda:

General Assembly:

1. Review of the Kyoto Protocol Arrangement (4th Committee for Special Political Affairs)
2. Towards the Nuclear-Free-World: Disarmament and Development (1st Committee for Disarmament and Security issues)
3. United Nations Response to the Population Outbreak

Security Council:

Open agenda

International Monetary Fund:

1. Loan Case: Republic of Serbia application for IMF Fund
2. Austerity vs Growth in European Union: Strategy over Euro Zone Development
3. The Need of Fiscal Transparency in Asian Emerging Countries

United Nations Development Program:

1. Project agenda: Road map for MDG's implementation- mission for sustainable energy for all: Universal access to energy by reducing dependence on fossil fuels
2. Ways to reduce poverty through the development of Small and Medium Enterprises (SME's)

International Court of Justice:

1. Japan vs. Russia: Sovereignty over the Kuril Islands
2. The Philippines vs. China: Maritime Dispute in the South China Sea
3. Interpretation of the Use of Force by NATO in Yugoslavia in 1999 (Request for Advisory Opinion)

Applications are accepted till December, 15th via e-mail: swanson@bk.ru

You may find the issue books and detailed information at: <http://www.munrfe.ru/conf>

On other questions, please, contact the organizing committee: XI.IC.coordinator@gmail.com

The best delegates will get an opportunity to take part in MUN Conference in New York!

Model United Nations Debates program of MUNRFE, which includes XI International MUNRFE Conference, is designed to stimulate personal development of young people through debating in the format of the United Nations, with the simulation of the real UN work and relevant and vital issues on the agenda. Through debates and negotiations the delegates learn consensus building, public speaking, diplomacy, leadership, and, of course, improve their level of English, which is an official language of all MUNRFE projects and MUNRFE as a whole.

Throughout its existence since 2001 MUNRFE conducted numerous international and regional MUN conferences, usually gathering around 100 delegates from Russia, USA, Korea, China, Japan, Indonesia, New Zealand, Germany, Belgium, Austria, Spain and other countries of Asia-Pacific Region and Europe. More than ten years of invaluable experience will undoubtedly ensure high level of debates and infrastructure during XI International MUNRFE Conference, which will gather 300 Russian and foreign students, giving them an opportunity to be involved in the process of debating and solving the vital issues.

With each project MUNRFE maintains organizational flexibility without compromising on effectiveness. Desire to learn, opportunity to contribute to development attracts hundreds of talented students to MUNRFE every year, effectively making it one of the largest self-governed youth organizations in Russia and one of the most successful NGOs in the Russian Far East.

Please, visit our website www.munrfe.ru

Find us on facebook <http://www.facebook.com/groups/337762692960136/>